THE WAY YOU HOLD YOUR KNIFE: Paintings by Susan Larson

"Painting with knives recommended itself to me because...I tend to get bogged down in irrelevant detail. It has taught me to work first in large color areas and leave out most of the stuff I used to think was important to paint in. Also, knives are very easy to clean, and do not harbor, as brushes can, traces of paint their interiors."

January 2017

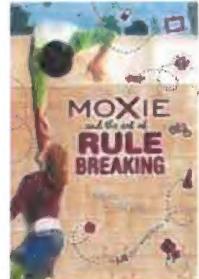

We are excited to announce Wayland Reads 2017 book selections! Using the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum theft as a theme, we'll consider the value of art and the science of forgery. Visit waylandlibrary.org for program details. Events will take place in March and April.

The Art Forger* by B.A. Shapiro In this gripping novel, a Degas stolen from the Gardner Museum is brought to a young artist, who agrees to recreate it for the opportunity to show in a prestigious gallery.

Master Thieves: The Boston Gangsters Who Pulled Off the Greatest Art Heist* by Stephen Kurkjian The author, a journalist who has written about the Gardner heist for years, presents his findings in the search for the stolen paintings.

Moxie and the Art of Rule Breaking: A 14-day Mystery* by Erin Dionne A 13-year-old investigates the Gardner case in this terrific YA tale.

INTRODUCTION TO JEWISH GENEALOGY

Thursday, April 13: Screening—"The Mystery of a Masterpiece" NOVA episode

Tuesday, April 18: "MFA's Artful Adventures: Painting"—workshop for kids

Tuesday, April 25: Representative of Skinner Auctioneers will speak on art appraisal

Wednesday, May 3: B.A. Shapiro, author of The Art Forger

Sunday, May 7: Open studios tour of SoWa in Boston

There will also be a number of discussion groups for the books in the program. For a complete listing of events, go to waylandlibrary.org, click on EVENTS, and choose "Wayland Reads" from the drop-down menu that says "All Programs."

The idea of "one book, one city" originated in 1998 with a Seattle librarian named Nancy Pearl. In the years since, such programs have cropped up in cities, towns, schools, and colleges across the country and the world. Wayland Reads is thus part of an international effort to create community through literature. We hope you feel like being part of it.

RETIREMENT, DEFINED OR REDEFINED BY YOU with Bob Desaulniers

Most people's main concern about retirement is money. True, your finances are essential to next-step planning. But experts believe the greatest challenge of retirement is designing a lifestyle that provides purpose. This program will focus on the challenges of how we spend our time. For impending retirees, it can be a start to a plan, and for those who have already retired, a chance to reflect and reassess.

Film Showing: Round Ireland with a Fridge

The Armchair Travel Book Club presents this film based on a book read last year, Round Ireland with a Fridge by Tony Hawkes. The group enjoyed the book so much that when we realized the author also wrote and stars in a film of the same name, we wanted to watch it together. All are invited to join us. It's not necessary to have read the book.

Friday, July 28 10 a.m.

Library? Hotspot!

You knew that already; everybody comes to the library. But you might not know about our two Wi-Fi Hotspots that you can check out for two weeks at a time. You can reserve them just like a book. This easy-to-use mobile device offers internet access over a wireless local area network (WLAN), allowing you to connect up to 10 Wi-Fi enabled devices and get high-speed internet access virtually anywhere in the United States. Good to have on a long car ride, a vacation, or when your own connection is down.

Extremely Useful New Electronic Devices

Phone dead in the library, and incompatible with our charging station? Fear not—just check out our Elephas 2 wireless charger from the Ref Desk, plug it into your laptop, and pretty soon you're good to go. And if that means going home to convert some old VHS tapes into digital files (before they crumble into dust), take our Elgato digital converter with you. No software necessary—just plug it into your camcorder and your computer. You'll end up with a file you can save onto a hard drive or load onto a DVD. New life for those old home videos!

Coding for Adults with Win Treese

Ever wondered how the software of the world gets made? This fall, the Wayland Library is sponsoring a short introduction to coding for adults. We'll explore the basics of writing computer programs, key ideas in computer science, and how software works on our computers, phones, cars, the Internet, and more. The group will meet most Thursdays through mid-December. Bring your own laptop or use one of the library's computers. Win Treese has worked on software in startups, industrial research, and academia for many years, including at Digital Equipment, MIT, and Boston University. He has also been a facilitator for the Girls Who Code club sponsored by the library. Enrollment is limited, so sign up now!

Lawrence of Arabia, the Arab Revolt, and the Middle East

In 1914, as World War I raged, an idealistic English archeologist with dreams of liberating an oppressed people encouraged the Arabs to join with the Allies, with the assurance of autonomy at the war's end. This is a story of false diplomacy and broken promises that haunts the world to the present day.

Presenter Bob Begin's major interest is naval history, but he is also intrigued by the concept of empire and how it has shaped the world.

WILD WAYS: CORRIDORS OF LIFE

Wildlife the world over need to roam for breeding, foraging, and to carry out their traditional migrations—but they are often blocked by ranches, roads and other human-made obstacles. Now there's new hope for wildlife through an approach called "connectivity conservation." Wild Ways reveals through stunning cinematography how lions, bears, antelope, and elephants can be saved. From North America's Yellowstone to the Yukon, to Southern Africa's elephant highways stretching across five nations, animals are on the move again in Wild Ways.

3D Design—Make a Sliding Box!

In this 3D design workshop using Tinkercad, participants will design their own sliding box. Some experience with Tinkercad is recommended, but not required. Objects will be printed after the workshop, and will be free. Parents of very young children are encouraged to design with them. Space is limited so sign up online, in person, or over the phone.

Wednesday, December 20 4:30 p.m.

New Assistant Director: Andy Moore

A WFPL stalwart, Andy will be at the Ref Desk less often, but at the library even more in his new role. Wish him well!
